* after you pick or waive your insurance

 Additional Insurance policy must be purchased at the time you pay your deposit or before. You will not be able to purchase additional insurance after the deposit is made. So here are some insurance options. Don't worry all moves in the state of Georgia / South Carolina comes with a basic insurance plan. So if you waive the additional insurance here you will still have some basic insurance for your move.

Example:

If we scratch your Couch. We would weigh your couch and you would be paid out .60 per pound.

So if your couch weighed 200 lbs you would get $120

Here is the link for the state of Georgia , 3rd page down explains insurance

Here is the link for the state of South Carolina

<https://ors.sc.gov/consumers/transportation/transportation-faqs>

Any insurance you pick will be added to you invoice and paid with deposit.

 if No additional insurance is purchased it will automatically revert to a waived insurance status. This means you will automatically get the state issued insurance which is free
